Presenting: On Spirit and Intent: A Roadmap to Contemporary Treaty Relations

In the age of Reconciliation in Canada, the question of what “moving forward” looks like is one that is inescapable for anyone wishing to participate in this national conversation. Where are we going? What will we use to get there? What part do each of us have to play?

Join us in exploring how we, as Indigenous and non-Indigenous people alike, can together rediscover and reinvigorate the original spirit and intent of the numbered Treaties as a roadmap for becoming the Canada we were always meant to be.
